

VE Day in West Hatch!

on Friday 8th May 2020

To celebrate the end of the Second World War in 1945, there is a national Bank Holiday on Friday, 8th May 2020 and we are holding a big event throughout the day with something for everyone to enjoy. This will include:

- The annual plant and produce sale in the morning with coffee, tea and cakes (11.30am). War time food fayre will be on offer.
- A short Service;
- A visit by “Winston Churchill” in his staff car with other WW2 vehicles;
- A band playing well-known music from the 40s;
- Games for all to play (skittles, rounders, boules etc);
- Barbecue (with baps, burgers, sausages, salads and puddings);
- Fire pit and WW2 songs and much more....

So save the date in your diary – it will be a great day out!
